Edward and Sally Van Lier/Stein Family Scholarship Fund for Advanced Studies in Book Arts

The Center for Book Arts is pleased to announce the Edward and Sally Van Lier/Stein Family Scholarship Fund for Advanced Studies in Book Arts. In 2010, the Center will award three scholarships to individuals who have demonstrated a commitment to the artistic endeavors in the book arts. The purpose of this program is to provide opportunities to emerging artists committed to developing careers in the book arts field, and to further the growth of this artistic profession.

The award includes a $3,000 cash stipend plus a materials budget of $1,000 and 24 hour access to the Center's printing and binding facilities for a full year. Artists also receive a tuition waiver for courses throughout the year, planned in conjunction with the staff. Experienced printers and bookbinders will be available to advise the artists on issues of materials and techniques as they arise. Scholars will be required to complete an artist project by the end of the scholarship period, with the possibility of an exhibition in our gallery space. They will have the opportunity to teach certain core courses at the Center, depending on their background. They will also have the opportunity to collaborate in special publications and artist projects. No travel or lodging reimbursements are available.

About the Center

The Center for Book Arts was founded in 1974 to explore and cultivate contemporary aesthetic interpretations of the book as an art object while invigorating traditional artistic practices of the art of the book. The Center's equipment and facilities include a complete letterpress printshop with four Vandercook proof presses, two treadle presses, a 19th century Washington hand press and several platen presses, a composing room with many cabinets of foundry type, a Charles Brand etching press, a 36" guillotine paper cutter, and all accessory equipment. The two binderies include nipping presses, standing presses, two board shears, a 3-ton Kensol hot stamping press, two Kwikprint hot stamping presses, lying presses, backing presses, and many hand tools. The Center's library, artist book collection, slide registry and other materials are also available for reference for students.

Requirements

Applications will not be accepted from students enrolled in undergraduate or graduate degree programs during the program year, which runs from September 2010 through August 2011. Applicants are encouraged to visit the Center for Book Arts prior to applying to this program. Applicants do not need an appointment to visit. The Center is open to the public M – F 10 am – 6pm and Saturdays 10am – 4pm.

Artists are invited to submit applications postmarked by May 1, 2010.

To Apply:

1. Current resume (two pages maximum) including artistic endeavors such as previous bookmaking courses taken, inclusion in exhibitions, or experience in the field.
2. A 500-word essay expressing your artistic intent, reasons for wanting to continue your work at the Center for Book Arts in bookbinding, letterpress printing, or related fields, and financial need.
3. Ten digital images of your work. Images should be 1240 x 1240 max. pixels, jpg format, and saved onto the root directory of a PC-formatted CD, not into folders. Name files—they will appear in alpha order.

NOTE: Promotional materials such as catalogs or postcards, and other supplemental materials will not be accepted. The Center for Book Arts is not responsible for such materials. They will be discarded.

4. A descriptive image list that corresponds with your images and gives the title, date, dimensions and medium of the pieces shown.
5. Two (2) reference letters by professionals in the book arts field, such as an instructor, professor, or employer.
6. Demonstration of financial hardship such as a recent tax return or a letter from an official governing agency.

INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE REVIEWED

Please send materials postmarked by May 1, 2010 to:
