

THE CENTER FOR BOOK ARTS

APPLICATION FOR ARTIST MEMBERSHIP AS OF 1/07

All artists are welcome to apply for artist membership. One does not have to be a book artist to apply for artist membership rather one must have created work related to the medium of book arts.

The Center for Book Arts provides artists with special services and opportunities in addition to the benefits of their membership category. Artist Members are included in the Artist Slide Registry, a resource devoted to artists working in the book format and related media, which is used by curators, researchers, collectors, writers and other artists as a reference tool. Artist Members also enjoy the opportunity to submit works to The Center's annual summer exhibition, a juried show which features works by members, as well as the opportunity to apply to be our Featured Artist Project exhibition series. For more information on this gallery program, please contact The Center.

To apply for Artist Membership, fill out the information below and return this form with images of your work, a current artist's resume, and a brief artist's statement. Images should represent at least two different works related to the book arts and produced within the last three years, as well as any related work you may have done in another medium. The minimum number of images for application is five, though you may submit up to ten. Please label all images and include a detailed image list on a separate piece of paper (give title, date, dimensions and medium). The Center will accept slides, CDs, DVDs, and/or printouts. Please do not send any original artwork.

If you are not already a member, please include payment for Membership in the category of your choice:

If you are accepted as an Artist Member, we will retain your images and information sent with this application and create a file for you in the Artist Slide Registry. This file will remain active as long as you are a member of The Center for Book Arts, and we encourage you to update it regularly with new images, exhibitions notices, etc.

The Center occasionally provides reproductions of artist's slides for use in articles, lectures and demonstrations. In all cases, The Center insists that the work(s) be named and that the artist or artists receive credit.

As an Artist Member, I give The Center for Book Arts the right to use or reproduce the slides in my file in promoting me and my work, The Center for Book Arts or the book arts in general.
